

Ten Top Tips for Effective Learner Voice Activities

1. Ensure that learners feel empowered through active participation
2. Enable direct channels of communication through which all learners can communicate and all views heard
3. Allow learners to have a genuine influence within the organisation for example by involving them in recruitment panels, lesson observation or policy development
4. Actively seek to collect and use the opinions of a broad sample of learners on a range of core issues through for example videos, interviews, focus groups, surveys etc.
5. Provide learners with choices for example about the curriculum or the pace of learning or styles of teaching etc.
6. Incorporate learner reflections and observations into decision-making processes.
7. Develop learners skills to enable learners to make informed decisions about their learning
8. Involve learners in the development of planning, teaching and learning methods and opportunities and/ or assessment strategies
9. Ensure two-way communication so that learners are not only heard but given responses and feedback
10. Develop leadership roles for learners for example tackling key issues such as attendance or bullying
